PROJECT: HUNT U465

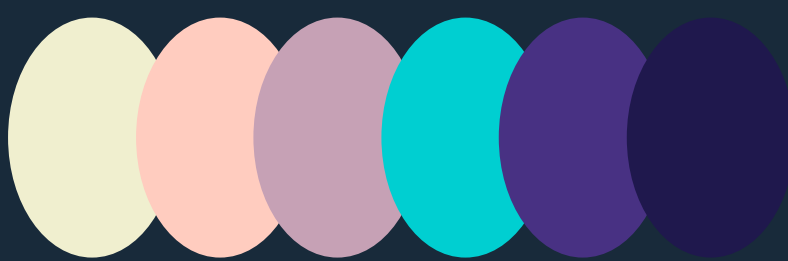

Use: Mount

Type: Land-type hybrid creature

Strength: Exceptional endurance and powerful crab-like grip for defence and mobility

Description: A towering fusion of crab and mammal, it stands on armoured crab legs and torso while wielding human-like arms. Its elongated giraffe-like face hides behind a skeletal mask, and a plated chest armour reinforces its imposing, otherworldly presence.

Backstory: Originally created in a forbidden experiment to merge resilience and speed, this creature was engineered as a living weapon. When its creators vanished, survivors tamed it as a mount, harnessing its unmatched durability to traverse harsh, war-torn landscapes.

RAYONDRA

Daughter of the 3TING Royal Family

Type: Sea-type royal hybrid

Strength: Agile underwater maneuvering, bio-luminescent camouflage, and a powerful tail for defence

Description: A striking blend of humanoid and stingray, with wide, flowing fins that form a natural cape and a sleek aquatic physique. Glowing patterns ripple across their skin, reflecting the deep ocean's light and signifying their noble lineage.

Backstory: Born to the main sea royal bloodline, this creature was destined to guard the oceanic realm's secrets. Revered as both warrior and emissary, they embody the balance between grace and lethal precision in the ever-shifting tides of their world.
